

Membership Rules and Boundries

This section is necessarily direct and dry. We need to convey the importance of playing by our rules when you are using our website as well as the consequences of using our tools inappropriately. Since Fair Shake has been created to support your transition with resources, technical tools and interpersonal considerations, we will keep this work on a positive and somewhat professional level. We are here to support ownership, participation and integration into society. We will not supervise, reform or otherwise baby-sit any Fair Shake participants. If you choose to use the site for other than its designated use, the consequences are swift and strong.

Fair Shake was created with you in mind. If some of these tools are not working to your satisfaction, are lacking in some areas, or even if you think they are just great; please tell us! Your opinion is valuable and you can tell us a great deal about how it works in the real world. Engage in every area to support your own reentry and improve Fair Shake for future members.

The Fair Shake User Agreement

Access to a Fair Shake email address is free for 3 years. We request a donation of $10 per year after that, which will go directly toward supporting new users. We will notify you 6 months before the free subscription expires so you can start to consider your options.

To open an account, please complete the registration process by providing us with current, complete and accurate information as prompted by the Registration Form. Choose a user name at least 2 characters long and password more than 4 characters long. Once you agree to this contract, you are entirely responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your password and account. Furthermore, you are entirely responsible for any and all activities that occur under your account and you are required to notify Fair Shake.net immediately of any unauthorized use of your account or any other breach of security.

You will need to respond to our email within 2 weeks, so please check your email fairly often in the first two months. If we cannot resolve the issue at that time, your email access will be blocked.

- Spamming will not be tolerated.
- An account used for spamming will be terminated immediately.
- We will notify the ISP or access provider of any spamming activity by an individual, and prompt them for action against that person.
- Using the service in any way for spamming purposes, whether directly or indirectly, will expose an individual to legal action.
- Forging email headers is illegal and will result in legal action

Fair Shake.net will immediately terminate any account that it believes, in its sole discretion, is transmitting or is otherwise connected with any Spam or other unsolicited bulk email.

2. Fair Shake.net is applying advanced technologies in filtering pornographic emails either they came from mailing lists or pornographic websites.
3. Fair Shake.net reserve the right to terminate any account that it's username contains pornographic descriptions. (i.e.: sex@Fair Shake.net)
