First Things First: How to Use this Book

The purpose of this book is to help you get ready to leave prison, return home, and find what you need to get back on your feet. It is specifically focused on what you'll need to know during the first weeks and months that you're back, which can be a time of difficult adjustment. This book will not answer all of the questions you will face in preparing for and adjusting to being back in the community, but it can help you get started. It will also tell you where to go to get more information. Unless a fee or charge is listed, all of the services and resources listed here are free; however, please note that the fees and charges listed in this guide are subject to change.

Each section of this book gives general tips you need to know, and it provides addresses, phone numbers and other information about different programs and resources in Union County. Things that you can do to get a head start before you are released are highlighted. Getting started early, before you get out, may be one of the best things you can do for yourself to make your first few days at home easier. In the back of this book, is a “Game Plan” for the first few weeks, a chart to help you plan ahead. There is also space where you can write down other useful phone numbers and appointments.

You won't find here every service or organization in Union County, but again, this book should give you a place to start. The organizations that are listed can help refer you to other places in the area that can be of help to you. For more listings, and for current information about office hours and changes in policies, you can go to the website designed to help former prisoners in Union County, www.njsuccess.org. When you get to this site, click on the Central New Jersey tab. You can also contact the folks who wrote and designed this book, Union County Ex-Offender Re-entry Partnership by sending an email to bherrmann@ucnj.org or calling ((908) 527 4800.

GETTING FREE ACCESS TO THE INTERNET

All of the public libraries listed on page 37 should be able to provide you with free internet access

Getting Started: Identification and Other Documents

A. Social Security Card

You can obtain a replacement card if you have a Social Security number (even if you don't remember it). You can request a new card from prison by mail, or after you are released at the local social security office.

Identification and Legal documents (NCHS)

Customer Service Unit, Trenton, 609-292-4087

PRE-RELEASE: The New Jersey Department of Corrections has an agreement in place with the Social Security Administration that allows inmates in the release process to apply for a replacement Social Security Card. This service is offered through the Social Services Department of the correctional facility. The application and card are free. Once approved the card is sent to your correctional facility and will be issued to you upon your release from custody. For more information contact the Social Services Department at your correctional facility.

POST-RELEASE: You can also get the application by phone or by mail, or by going to the Union County Social Security Administration Office, 547 Morris Avenue, Elizabeth, NJ 07207. The website www.njsuccess.org, directs you to this area by clicking on Central New Jersey on the map. Phone #: 1.800.772.1213. The form SS-5 can also be downloaded from the Social Security website www.ssa.gov/replace_sscard.html. You can fill it out there and show proof of identification at the SSA office. Prison release papers count as proof of identification.

B. Birth certificate

The Office of Vital Statistics in the New Jersey Department of Health and Senior Services keeps all New Jersey birth records. The fee for a copy is $25.

PRE-RELEASE: You can write a letter requesting a birth certificate, which must include the name on the certificate, the exact date of birth, the exact city and municipality and county of birth, full maiden name of mother and name of father if his name is on the certificate. You must include a photocopy of the identification for the person requesting the record (which may be you; however, someone else may request the birth certificate for you, but they must state their relationship to you in the letter). Valid identification includes a photo driver's license or non-driver's license, photo identification and some other form of identification

- with an address, or two alternate forms of identification
- with an address. You can use a prison photo identification,
- with documentation of the address of the prison.

Mail your request to: NJ Vital Statistics, Customer Service Unit, PO Box 370, Trenton, NJ 08625-0370. It should take 6 to 8 weeks. If you have not received your birth certificate after 8 weeks please call 609-292-4087 and select option "status of current request." For more information and assistance, contact the Social Services Department at your correctional facility.

POST-RELEASE: In addition to writing, you can go directly to the Bureau of Vital Statistics on the first floor of the Health and Agriculture Building in Trenton, on the corner of Warren and Market Streets. In-person counter service is available from 8:30 to 4:00 and you can usually get the certificate on the same day. You will still need the information listed above. For the most current information on ordering and information, visit the following website: www.state.nj.us/health/vital/ or call 1-866-649-8726. You can also obtain a birth certificate from the Registrar in the Office of Vital Statistics in the city of your birth. This is usually located in the Municipal Building. These records are only maintained for those born in that municipality. (This is generally a small cost saving.)

A State or local Registrar may issue a certified copy of a vital record only to persons who establish themselves as the subject of the vital record, the subject's parent, legal guardian or legal representative, spouse, child, grandchild or sibling of legal age, or to a State or Federal agency for official purposes, pursuant to court order, or under other emergent circumstances as determined by the Commissioner. All other applicants will be issued a Certification that states the document is not for identification or legal purposes.

C. County Identification

You can obtain a county identification card by going to the Union County Clerks Office. You will need your original birth certificate, original social security card, and three items that have been mailed out to you within the last 60 days that prove your home address.

County Clerk's Office

Union County Court House
2 Broad Street
Elizabeth, NJ. 07207
908-527-4787
Monday-Friday, 8:30 am – 4:30 pm
County ID card and passport services

You must provide a social security number, show proof of age, and proof of residence in Union County (so you can only do this after you are released).

D. Driver's License

If you do not have a driver's license, you will have to wait until you are released to get one, or to replace a lost card or to renew an expired license – unless you are in a halfway house and can go directly to the Motor Vehicle Commission (MVC). If you think or know that your license has been suspended you should make certain, and then determine what you need to do to get it back. If you were convicted of any kind of drug offense, your license will have been suspended.

PRE-RELEASE: You can request a copy of your driver's license record, which is called a "driver history abstract." You will have to get and send in a request form (DO-21) from the NJ Motor Vehicle Commission (MVC). You can request this form by phone 1.888.486.3339, or mail to NJ Motor Vehicle Commission, Abstract Unit, 225 East State Street, PO Box 142, Trenton, NJ 08666-0142. Once you receive and complete the form, you will have to send it back with $10 and a photocopy of your driver's license. The abstract will tell you whether your license is suspended and why. Depending on why it is suspended, you may be able to address some of the problems before you get out. For example, if your license was suspended because you failed to show up for a court date because you were incarcerated, you can write the court and try to clear this up by mail. If you owe fines, you will probably not be able to pay these before you get out, but you should try to find out how much you owe, and to whom you owe them.

POST-RELEASE: Once you are out, you can go to the MVC offices in Union County (see below) to request a driver history abstract. You will still have to pay $10. If your license was suspended for 6 months or more because of a drug conviction, the period of the suspension will begin from the time of your release. Other kinds of suspension, such as for failure to pay parking tickets, insurance surcharges, or child support, will last until you have paid the fine or worked out a payment plan. For questions about suspension, call the suspension hotline: 1-609-292-7500.

If you need to replace a lost or stolen license, you will have to bring identification to the MVC and pay $11. The MVC now requires very specific forms of ID. You will need “primary” identification (birth certificate, passport, citizenship papers, etc.) and “secondary” identification (school records, marriage or divorce certificates, employee ID cards, old driver’s licenses, etc.) and proof of your address. You can get a brochure on the new “Six-Point system” from the MVC offices listed above, or from the Motor Vehicle Commission website, www.state.nj.us/mvc. If your license has expired, you will have to go to the MVC to fill out a renewal application. ID will be required. You may have to take the written test again. License renewal costs $24. License reinstatement (after suspension) costs $100.

E. Non-driver's State Identification

New Jersey (NJVMC) provides Non-Driver photo ID cards. You can get this official state ID even if your driver's license is currently suspended, so this may be a good option for you if it looks like it will take you a long time to get your license back. You will still need to bring the kinds of identification documents described above, under the new Six-Point system to the MVC.

F. Certificates of Naturalization or Citizenship

You will need this for employment if you are not a citizen. In general, if you need to replace lost forms, you can contact the US Citizenship and Immigration Services or Application Support Centers to obtain information about identification and fingerprint verification. There is a fee to process an application for replacement documents. The National Customer Service Hotline is 1-800-375-5283.

H. Military Discharge Papers

A Certificate of Release, Discharge from Active Duty, or DD214 Form for short, is generally issued when a service member is honorably discharged from active military duty. The document contains information normally needed to verify military service for benefits, retirement, employment, and membership in veterans' organizations.

PRE-RELEASE: You can write to request a copy of your DD214, from the Department of Veterans Affairs, Newark Regional Office, 20 Washington Place, 3rd Floor, Newark, NJ 07102, or from the main records depository at the National Personnel Records Center, 9700 Page Avenue, St. Louis, MO 63132-5100. You can do this by letter, but it's better to use the official form SF-180 available by writing to the local or national offices listed above, or by calling 800-829-1000. For more information and assistance contact the Social Services Department at your correctional facility.

POST-RELEASE: You can also complete the application online at the NPRC website:

<http://www.archives.gov/veterans/military-service-records/>.

The form is located at:

<http://www.archives.gov/research/order/standard-form-180.pdf>.

or you can go to the website www.vetrecs.archives.gov and follow the on-screen instructions for requesting personnel records. You will be asked to print out a signature page which can either be mailed or faxed and after they receive the form, the records will be mailed directly to you.

The County Clerk recommends that once a Union County veteran obtains his or her DD-214, they file a copy with the Union County Clerk's Office, free of charge. Then when a copy is needed, a veteran, an immediate family member or a legally recognized representative of their estate may obtain a copy with proper identification. The Clerk's Office is located in the Union County Courthouse at 2 Broad Street, Elizabeth, NJ. The hours of operation are Monday to Friday 8:30 am to 4:30 pm. DD-214s can also be mailed to the Clerk's Office for processing. For further information on filing or to obtain military discharge papers call the Union County Clerk's office 980-527-4787. You may also contact the Union County Veterans Affairs Office at 908- 527-4717 or the Veterans Hotline at (866) 640-7115.

I. Passport

Although a passport may not seem important at this point, it can serve you well as a form of widely accepted identification that is easier to get, although it does cost money. If you do not have one, after you are released go to the Union County Clerk's Office in Elizabeth or Westfield; or the Philadelphia Passport Agency in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. You will need to bring: an original or certified copy of a birth certificate with a raised seal and file date issued by Vital Statistics, a naturalization certificate (if applicable) or a previous US passport. Photocopies are not accepted. You will also need to furnish a social security number and provide identification, such as a valid driver's license, government identification or previous passport issued after your 16th birthday. The expired passport should not be more than 15 years old. However, if you do not have those forms of identification, you can bring with you an identifying witness who has known you for at least 2 years and has a valid driver's license. In addition to this witness, you will have to present 3 other forms of identification. You must bring 2 copies of a 2x2 face-front photo. The total fee is $100.00, of which $75.00 must be by check or money order payable to US Department of State, and a $25.00 execution fee payable by cash, check, or money order to the County Clerk. You may also obtain a passport at most U.S. Post Offices. The post office fee is $97 for a first-time adult passport and $67 for renewal.

As of February 1, 2008, the US Department of State introduced a new travel document for US citizens called the US Passport Card. This card is valid for land and sea crossings between the U.S. and Canada, Mexico, Bermuda, and the Caribbean only. If traveling by air, citizens must apply for a Passport Book. Citizens may apply for both travel documents. For further information contact the Passport Desk at (908) 527-4966.

J. High School Diploma/General Education Diploma (GED)/
High School Equivalency Degree (HSED)/Vocational School Certificates

It is very important to have records of your degrees, school completion certificates or work-related licenses. This will help you get a job, and can also provide additional identification should you need it. Before you are released, you can write to the school or agency that gave you your degree or certificate.

Each of these will have separate procedures. You should also get copies of certificates for programs or classes you completed in prison.

You can also request a GED transcript or diploma verification from the New Jersey Department of Education if you got your GED/diploma in New Jersey, and not at a correctional facility, local district high school, or local adult high school. You will have to fill out a GED Information Request Form, which you can have sent to you by calling the GED information line at 609-777-1050 and requesting that it be mailed to you. You can also pick up the form at a local testing center (which you can do after you are released), or you can download the form from the website:

<http://www.state.nj.us/njded/students/ged/ged7.htm> or writing to the GED Testing Program, Bureau of Adult Education and Family Literacy, New Jersey Department of Education, PO Box

500, Trenton, NJ 08625 with a money order for $5. They do not accept personal checks.

K. Prison Release Papers

Make sure you hold on to your prison release papers. These can serve as identification in some circumstances.

First Steps After Release: Where Do I Go to Find ... ?

The first days after you get out can be the toughest. This section will give you information to help you get on your feet: places to go for food, shelter, clothing, money, and other emergency needs. While every agency in Union County isn't listed in this book, those places listed will help you get started and work with people coming out of prison. Here are some pointers for the first days out:

BE PREPARED: Put all your paperwork and identification in one place – a folder or an envelope – and have it with you, so you can answer questions.

KEEP RECORDS: Write down the full names and phone numbers of people with whom you've spoken, and the date/time you spoke with them. Keep copies of money orders or receipts for items you've purchased, and letters you've received from government agencies, courts, or organizations that are helping you.

BE PATIENT: You may have to wait in a lot of lines and be put on hold by telephone operators. You will meet a lot of workers who are trying to help a lot of people in addition to you. Expect to wait. Expect to be sent to different offices and workers to obtain all of the services and items that you need. Try to be patient and polite – it will help.

Below you will find the names, addresses, phone numbers and descriptions of agencies and services that can help you. It is a good idea to call before visiting to ensure that their hours of operation haven't changed.

A. First Stops

The agencies below provide either a range of services and/or can refer you to other agencies, depending on what you need.

E. Transportation

There is no general program to provide assistance paying for transportation. Though NJ Transit no longer accepts release papers in substitute for bus tickets, many correctional facilities offer discounted transit tickets home. You may contact your correctional facility Social Services Department for more information on this program. Additionally, some of the programs listed in this book will provide bus passes or bus cards to help you participate in the program. If you need that help, make sure you ask. For specific bus line information contact NJ Transit: 800-772-2222 or <http://www.njtransit.com>. If you click on the #trip planner" section you can find out routes.

If you are going to drive places, remember that you must have a valid driver's license, and you must have insurance for any vehicle that you are driving.

Low-Cost Car Insurance

New Jersey now has a "Dollar-A-Day Car Insurance Program" for low-income individuals who receive Medicaid and who want to insure a car registered in their name. It costs $360 per year if you pay all at once and $365 if you pay in installments. You cannot get this insurance if your license or registration is revoked or suspended. For more information contact: 800-652-2471; <http://www.state.nj.us/dobi/dollaradayqna.htm>. Monday through Friday.

TRANSPORTATION FOR THE DISABLED

Transportation is generally geared toward seniors, disabled, individuals with AIDS or HIV and others with significant needs. Some agencies provide transportation for their program participants only. Contact the agencies below to determine eligibility requirements.

ACCESS Link (NJ Transit)

New Jersey Transit
110 Plaza East
Newark, NJ 07105
1-800-955-2321

Call between 8:30 am and 5:00 pm, Mon-Fri

NJ Transit's Access Link paratransit service is comparable to the local bus service. This service is specifically for people whose disability prevents them from using the local fixed route bus service. You must call to be interviewed in person to determine your eligibility.

To arrange for an appointment with an Assessment Agency, please contact NJ TRANSIT by dialing 1-800-955-2321 (TTY 1-800-955-6765) between the hours of 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday. (Choose the "not a Certified Access Link Passenger" option to speak to a Certification Clerk.)

Union County Department of Human Services

Nonemergent transportation (as schedule permits) for seniors, economically disadvantaged residents of Union County. Must call 3-5 days in advance, service available on a first come first served basis. Call (908) 659-5000.

F. Money

Once you get out, you will need a source of income, at least temporarily, until you can find a job. (See under "Finding a Job" for information about looking for work). The DOC does not provide "gate money," except for any money you may have in your inmate account. If it is possible to save any money before you get out; you should try to do so. Parole may give emergency funds, based on need, but it's at their discretion – ask your parole officer.

You may be able to get some kind of public assistance ("welfare"), but not everyone qualifies. Here are the basics of what you'll need to know about getting benefits.

GENERAL ASSISTANCE (WFNJ-GA) AND TEMPORARY ASSISTANCE FOR NEEDY FAMILIES (WFNJ-TANF)

provide cash benefits – GA for single people and TANF for people who have their children with them. Both programs will require you to work or be actively looking for work and both have a five-year lifetime time limit. Work First New Jersey also has an Emergency Assistance program that you may qualify for if you are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless: it can pay for things like food, clothing and transportation costs to look for housing, but also temporary rental or mortgage payment assistance and utility payments.

WFNJ-GA AND WFNJ-TANF APPLICATION SITE:

Union County Division of Social Services

342 Westminster Avenue

Elizabeth, NJ 07207

(908) 965-3706

200 West 2nd Street

Plainfield, NJ 07063

(908)791-7000

Administers a variety of programs including free vaccinations for youth, and Temporary Aid for Needy families (TANF)

Hours: Monday-Friday, 8:30 am – 4:30 pm

NOTE: If you were convicted of an offense involving distribution or sale of drugs after August 22, 1996, you cannot receive cash benefits under GA or TANF. If you were convicted of an offense after that date that only involved possession of drugs, you may be able to get benefits if you completed or are enrolled in a licensed drug treatment program, or completed a program in prison and are drug free (you will have to submit to drug testing). If you apply for welfare and the case worker asks about your criminal background, you should answer truthfully and to the best of your knowledge. If you lie, you may be found “ineligible” and could also be prosecuted.

Food Stamps

Food Stamps help eligible recipients buy food using a debit card. Benefits are provided based on family size, income, expenses, and resources. Call (908) 965-3706 or (908)791-7000. You apply at the same place you apply for cash benefits. If you were convicted after August 22, 1996, of a drug distribution or sales offense, you may still be able to get Food Stamps if you have completed or are enrolled in a licensed drug treatment program, or completed a program in prison and are drug free (you will be tested). The same goes for possession offenses.

VETERANS BENEFITS: If you were receiving veteran's benefits (disability or pension) and you were incarcerated for more than 60 days, you will have to get reinstated after you are released. If you were not receiving benefits and you are a veteran, you may be eligible for benefits or for some of their other programs and services, including healthcare. You can contact the VA for questions about benefits at 800-827-1000; the health benefit number is 877-222-VETS. Discuss your Benefits with the VA Benefit Administration (regional office) located at 20 Washington Place, 3rd Floor, Newark, 973-645-1441 or at the Union County Division of Veterans Affairs, Union County Administration Building, 10 Elizabethtown Plaza, 3rd Floor, Elizabeth, NJ (908) 527-4718. Be advised that the VA takes considerable time to make decisions. On average, it takes 273 days to process a new application for benefits.

OTHER BENEFIT PROGRAMS: You may be eligible for other cash benefits, including Supplemental Security Income (SSI) disability Benefits. If you are seriously disabled and cannot work, call 1-800-772-1213 and the Women's, Infants, Children (WIC) program, which gives food vouchers to low-income parents. Inquire about WIC at the city or county welfare office.

Taking Care of Yourself: Getting Support

Coming home and readjusting to living on the outside can be tough, and there are places where you can get some support from people who have been through it already and know how the game is played. They can help you get back on your feet. Below are a few places to start. In addition, there are Narcotics Anonymous (NA) and Alcoholics Anonymous (AA) support group meetings throughout Union County. To find a meeting near you, call 866-920-1212 for AA or 800-992-0401 for NA. For other self-help group resources, call the New Jersey Self Help Clearinghouse at 800-367-6274.

Taking Care of Yourself: Health Care Resources

It is very important that you pay attention to your health during the period after you are released, to make sure you have a plan to get prescriptions that you need filled and to see a doctor if you have health conditions that need care. Also, stress and changes in routine can make many health conditions worse. Below, you'll find information on paying for healthcare and clinics and other resources in Union County.

A. Health Care Benefits: Am I eligible?

In New Jersey, the Medicaid program provides healthcare benefits for some low-income people. If you gain custody of children under 18 when you are released, you may qualify if you are single, or if the main breadwinner in the household is unemployed, or isn't earning enough to support the family. Otherwise if you are single, you will only qualify for Medicaid if you are low-income and are aged (over 65), blind or so disabled that you are unable to work. If you are disabled and are applying for SSI, you will also be screened for Medicaid at that time. If you qualify for General Assistance benefits, you will get some very basic healthcare benefits through Medicaid ("Plan G"). Medicaid is a separate program from GA or TANF, so you don't have to receive those benefits to qualify for Medicaid. For questions about Medicaid eligibility, call the NJ Medicaid Hotline at 1-800-356-1561.

If you are a veteran, you may be eligible for healthcare benefits through the Veteran's Administration, which provides a "Medical Benefits Package" for enrolled veterans. You can call 877-222-VETS for more information about eligibility and applying for benefits.

If you are HIV positive or have AIDS, you may also be eligible for the AIDS Drug Distribution Program (ADDP), which provides help paying for AIDS medication for people who don't have any other means of paying. You can apply for this program before you are released. Contact the Aids Drug Distribution Program at 908-352-7700 or toll free at 877-613-4533, 1-800- 624-2377 Monday – Friday, 9 am – 5 pm to apply.

Easter Seals New Jersey provides information, referrals and loans of medical equipment (including wheelchairs) to people in need. For information call 732-257-6662.

Getting clean and staying clean if you've got a problem with alcohol or drugs will be a major task for you if you want to stay out of trouble. Many of the health clinics, support centers and other resources listed in this guide can help refer you to treatment that most fit your needs. Listed below are some of Union County's treatment resources and each of these will also help with referrals if they can't help you. If you want treatment, you should also ask your parole officer for help – beds in treatment facilities are hard to come by, and they can help get you in. Also, you can call Union County Division of Planning, Alcohol and Drug Abuse (908)527-4837, or Intoxicated Driver Resource Center at (908) 527-4804 for referral information including detoxification treatment programs, residential and aftercare services.

Finding a Job: Employment Assistance and Training Programs

Getting a job is usually one of the most important things people need to do when they get out of prison. You need money to support yourself and help your family and you want to get on with your life and do something productive. Not everyone can get to work right away – things like getting drug treatment, dealing with your housing, health or family situation may sometimes come first. For most people, though, finding work is the first step to getting back on their feet. It will be very challenging to get a job once you have been in prison, but it is not impossible, and you need to be persistent and patient. Below are some tips on job searching, and information about resources that can help you find a job or get training for the job you want.

A. Things to Know Before You Start Your Job Search

BE PREPARED! Have all your documents in order – identification, school diplomas and training certificates. If you do not have a résumé, make sure you have a list of work experiences you've had, schools and training programs you've completed with names and addresses, so you can fill out applications. Decide who your references will be and have their information handy: a former employer, a pastor or priest, a teacher or coach, somebody who knows you and can speak well of you.

PRESENTATION MATTERS: Look as neat, clean and organized as possible, no matter what the job is. Be polite and respectful, even when people are not polite and respectful to you – and many won't be. Making the person you want to help you or hire you mad won't get you the job you want.

TALKING ABOUT YOUR CRIMINAL RECORD: If you are asked about your criminal record, you should not lie. If you do, and you are later found out, you'll probably be fired for lying, even if the record wasn't going to be a problem. It is easy for employers to perform criminal background checks, and many do. Before you apply for a job, think about what you will say when you are asked about your criminal background. You can be up front, but still stress what your strengths are, what you have to offer, what you have learned from your experience. Practice with a friend. While it is important to be honest, you should only answer the interview or application questions that you are asked. If you are asked, for example, about felony convictions during the past 7 years, you don't have to volunteer information about misdemeanors, arrests that did not lead to convictions, or convictions from more than seven years ago. But, if you are going to have to work around appointments with your parole officer, or other requirements of parole, keep in mind that you will have to work this out with your employer, which means telling him or her that you are on parole, even if you are not asked.

IT'S A JOB FOR RIGHT NOW; IT'S NOT THE REST OF YOUR LIFE

When you are first starting out, especially if you've been out of the job market for a while, or have never had a job, you need to build a work history, and, of course, you need to make some money. Take whatever job you can get for now. It doesn't have to be the exact job you want or what you eventually want to be doing. Do this job well, even if it's not a great job, and it may help you get a better one in the future. A year of good job performance will make your criminal record matter less.

C. Legal Restrictions on Employment and Protections Against Discrimination

If you are interested in getting a job and building a career in a particular area, you should make sure that it isn't one that is forbidden to someone with the kind of criminal conviction that you have on your record. There are about 22 categories of jobs in New Jersey that exclude people with convictions (which conviction it is varies by job). These include: aircraft/airport employees; paid public school employees; school bus drivers and school crossing guards; bank employees; bartenders and waiters in establishments where liquor is served; housing authority and municipal police and parking enforcement officers; New Jersey Turnpike Authority employees; liquor retail, wholesale, manufacturing or distributing employees; paid firefighters; child care center employees; community residences for individuals with developmental disabilities. A much larger number of jobs require that you disclose your criminal record, and that employers perform background checks; some of these, however, also require that employers consider evidence of rehabilitation. These include most jobs in the health care and counseling fields (including drug and alcohol counseling) and social workers.

If you are going to begin training in a particular field, make sure you find out from the training course whether there are any restrictions that will keep you from getting a job.

PROTECTIONS FOR LICENSED OCCUPATIONS:

If you are not absolutely barred from a position because of your conviction, New Jersey law says that you cannot be denied a professional license simply because of your conviction unless the crime for which you were convicted relates to the occupation you want to enter. If the licensing board or agency wants to deny you a license because the crime is related to the occupation, they have to explain, in writing, that they have considered certain factors like the seriousness of the crime, the circumstances of the crime, the date and your age when convicted, whether the crime was an isolated or repeated event, social conditions, and evidence of rehabilitation. You can ask your parole officer about applying for "certificate of rehabilitation," which can be used in your license application.

D. Benefits for Employers Who Hire People With Criminal Records

As you look for a job you can tell employers that the federal government has programs to support employers who hire people coming out of prison.

WORK OPPORTUNITY TAX CREDIT

An employer who hires people with criminal records is eligible to receive a Work Opportunity Tax Credit, a small rebate on their federal taxes. For more information you or the employer can call 1.800.792.8881 or 609-292-8112, or go to the internet at http://www.state.nj.us/njbiz/s_wotc.shtml.

FEDERAL BONDING PROGRAM

The Federal Bonding program provides bonding or "insurance coverage" for employers who hire individuals with criminal histories who are otherwise qualified but cannot get jobs due to their backgrounds. You can get information about this program from the New Jersey Department of Labor, Workforce Division or the local One-stop Career Center.

E. Opening a Checking or Savings Account

After you've gotten a source of income, you may want to open a checking or savings account. A checking account is a great idea because many jobs provide direct deposit, and your check is automatically deposited into your account on payday. Using checks to pay for your bills is also cheaper than using money orders. To open a checking account you usually need a picture identification (driver's license or non-driver state identification), proof of address, birth certificate, and a social security card. You can also request a debit card with your account, which you can use just like a credit card (as long as you have the money in your account already). You can get a debit card for either a checking account, or a savings account, but with a savings account you can earn interest on the money you've saved. Fees for these accounts will vary depending on the type of account and bank. Many banks now offer free checking.

F. Public Libraries

Your local public library can be a good resource for your job search. Public computers provide Internet access (and help from a librarian in using the computer), job and course listings, and other local directories. In addition, libraries often carry the government forms mentioned in this guide, and librarians can help you find information beyond the scope of this book.

RECONNECTING WITH FAMILY

As you prepare to come home, you may be thinking about reuniting with family members, including those you may not have seen for a long time. You may be excited to see your kids, your spouse, your parents, and others who are part of your family, and they may be glad to see you home, but your return can be stressful for you and for them. B. Child Custody and Visitation

Establishing visitation and gaining custody of your children once you are released is not an overnight procedure. If you had custody of your kids at the time you were incarcerated, and no family was able to take care of them, they may have been placed in foster care. If this is the case, and you do not know your child's case manager's name or number, contact the Division of Youth and Family Services (DYFS), at one of the three Union County District Offices. These offices are Union Central, 570 South Avenue East, Cranford, NJ 07016, (908) 497-1488, 866-224-1914; Union East, 80 West Grand Street, Elizabeth, NJ 07202 (908)-820-3000 or (800)-847-1738; Union West, 2nd Street, 4th Floor, Plainfield, NJ 07060. You will have to make an appointment with the case manager for an interview. They may not be willing to give you information over the phone. You'll be asked a series of questions in order to assess when and if you will be given visitation rights, so that you may reestablish your relationship with the child and hopefully regain custody again. This is just a quick overview of what to do and what you can expect.

■ Call DYFS and ask to speak to your child's case manager. For example: "Hi, my name is _____. I have recently been released from prison. My child _____ has been under foster care while I have been incarcerated. I would like to speak to the case manager so that I can make an appointment with him or her." Make an appointment.

■ Be sure to arrive at the appointment on time, and call if you are running late or need to reschedule. Bring paper and pencil to write down any information the case manager gives you.

This is your chance to ask questions so take advantage of it!

Be prepared to talk about your criminal background, and any problems that you may have such as alcohol or drugs.

The case manager can ask you if you have a place to live and other personal questions in order to assess whether you are eligible to establish visitation with your child. If you can, ask a friend or relative to help you practice answering these kinds of questions.

Make sure to pay attention to what the case manager says and ask about anything that you do not understand. The impression you make in the interview is important. If you feel yourself getting angry, ask for a cup of water, and take an extra breath to cool down. Answer questions honestly, even about things like substance abuse, because the case manager may be able to assist with getting you into treatment or with other help you may need. The best way to help your child is to help yourself first. Make sure you leave the office with all documents that the case manager gave you regarding your child, and remember to ask for a business card from the case manager, in case you have questions later on. If you were convicted of any violent or sexual offenses against children, you may be unable to live with or regain custody of your children.

C. Getting and Paying Child Support

Whether you have custody of your children on your own when you get out, and need help from an absent (“non-custodial”) parent, or you do not have custody of kids who need your support, child support payments will be an important part of your life after you are released. Some basic information is included below, as well as other places to go to get more information. Child support, custody and visitation issues are very complicated, and if you can get a lawyer, you should. Contact the Legal Services of New Jersey hotline, from 9:00 am - 4:30 pm, at 888-576-5529, or the Union County Bar Association Lawyer Referral Service at 908-354-5984. You can also contact Central Jersey Legal Services at 60 Prince Street, Elizabeth, NJ 07208 at 908-354-4340. From prison, you can also contact the Prisoner’s Self-Help Legal Clinic, PO Box 768, Newark, 973-242-3688.

GETTING AND ENFORCING A CHILD SUPPORT ORDER

If you have custody of your children, and want financial support from the non-custodial parent, you can apply for child support at the Union County Family Court Building, 2 Broad Street, 2nd Floor Annex, Elizabeth, NJ 07207, 908-965-2965. You will need to complete an application, also available at <http://www.njchildsupport.org/pdfs/njcsform.pdf> and a one-time $6 check, money order or cash. You can also call 1-877-NJKIDS1 for more information about this. If you are receiving public assistance, there is no fee, and Work First New Jersey/TANF can help with the application, locating the absent parent, and paternity testing, but you won’t get most of the money paid in support while you are receiving public assistance, because it will go to pay back the state for what has been paid to you. Child Support Services of the Probation Division are located at Probation Division, Union County Child Support Unit, 1143-1145 E.

Jersey St., Elizabeth, NJ. 07201. The phone number there is 908-659-3500. 1-877-NJKIDS1, helps enforce child support orders.

PAYING CHILD SUPPORT

If you have kids that you did not have custody of before you went to prison, there may be a child support order requiring you to pay a certain amount every month for their support. Even if you did not go to court — if, for example, the parent with custody filed for the order while you were incarcerated — the court can still order you to pay child support. The amount you pay in child support is tied to your income, and if the court does not know your income, they will assume you are working 40 hours a week at minimum wage. Child support payments are usually taken out of your paycheck. If you have not paid at all or missed payments, you will owe “arrears.” Unless you got a modification of your child support order when you went into prison (see below), the amount of arrears that you owe will have continued to grow while you were inside. When you come out, and get a job, they can begin to take out not just the monthly amount you owe for child support, but more money to pay back the arrears (up to 65% of your pay in total). They may also suspend your driver’s license only if there is a warrant. If the warrant is cleared the client must pay $100 restoration fee to DMV unless waived by court order. Here are some things you can do:

PRE-RELEASE: Before you are released, you can seek a modification of a child support order, based on your change in circumstances (incarceration). You would ask the court to reduce the amount you owe, so that arrears do not continue to build up while you are in prison. This process can be done without a lawyer but it is complicated, because you have to fill out and send the appropriate papers to court, the other parent or his or her lawyer, and to the Probation Division. The forms you need and the instructions are available at the state judiciary website, www.judiciary.state.nj.us/prose/infmpjm.pdf, or may be available in your prison law library.

POST-RELEASE: You can find out how much you owe, and whether there is an existing child support order by calling the state office of child support services at 877-655-4371. If you have not been paying child support, you should be aware that there may be a warrant issued for your arrest – this may have been addressed at the time you were being released, but you should still call. Tell them who you are, that you have just been released from prison and that you would like information on paying your child support. You should also ask if there is a warrant.

CAN I GET FINANCIAL AID?

Financial assistance is available to pay for higher education and some training programs. To apply, you must complete the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) form. Everyone must answer Question 31 about drug convictions. If you answer yes, you must complete a Student Aid Eligibility Worksheet to determine if your eligibility will be affected. If you have been convicted for the possession or sale of illegal drugs for an offense that occurred while you were receiving federal student aid, you will, in general, be ineligible for a specified period of time based on the type and number of convictions. The Financial Aid Officer at your educational institution will be able to provide more information about your eligibility.

B. Checking and Correcting Your Criminal Record (“rap sheet”)

Since employers, landlords and others will be performing criminal background checks and getting copies of your criminal record, it is important that you know what is on it, and that it is accurate. You should also be prepared to answer any questions about your background. You will have to go into your local police station and make an appointment to be fingerprinted on a State Applicant Fingerprint Card (SBI19). On that card you will have to include your full name, social security number, date of birth and purpose for the record check. You then mail the card, with a cover letter listing the purpose of the request, the name of the person whose records are being requested, and the address where the records should be sent, to:

State Section of Identification
Records and Identification Bureau
New Jersey State Police
PO Box 7068
West Trenton, NJ 08628
1-609-882-2000 ext 6425
1-609-530-4856 fax

You must include a $30 money order or cashier's check, certified check, or business check made payable to:
DIVISION OF STATE POLICE-SBI. No personal checks are accepted.

C. Expungement: Cleaning Up Your Criminal Record

You may have heard about expungement as one way to clean up your criminal record as you get some distance from your old arrests and convictions. Unfortunately, expungement is fairly limited in New Jersey. You can expunge any arrest that did not lead to a conviction at any point. You can expunge “disorderly persons offenses,” which are low-level offenses in New Jersey, after 5 years, and most municipal ordinance offenses after 2 years. Convictions for “indictable offenses” (felonies), can be expunged 10 years from the date of conviction, payment of any fine, satisfactory completion of probation or parole or release from incarceration, but whichever is latest. The most serious of these offenses, such as murder, kidnapping, aggravated sexual assault, robbery, arson, perjury and distribution, sale or possession with intent to distribute of controlled dangerous substances (drugs), can never be expunged. Expungement is a broader remedy for offenses committed as a juvenile.

Legal Services of New Jersey has published a guide to cleaning up your record through expungement. To get a copy of the book, which costs $15, call 1-888-576-5529, or go to the LSNJ website, where you can download it for free at: <http://www.lsnj.org/english/crime/municipalcourt/clearingyourrecord.cfm>.

D. Checking and Correcting Your Credit Record

While New Jersey allows employers to look at your criminal record, many employers – and others like landlords and mortgage companies – will use a credit report instead of, or in addition to, the state's records. Credit records are maintained by private companies and generally have information about your debts, your history of paying bills and other financial matters, but may also have information about your criminal record. That information may not be correct, and the law does offer you some protections. For example, if an employer uses a credit record to deny you a job, they have to tell you this, and give you the name, address and phone number of the agency that provided the report, and the agency must give you a copy of that information on your request. They cannot charge you money for that request if the employer used the report to deny you a job. If the records of the credit agency contain incorrect information, they must investigate and correct inaccurate information. You can get ahead of the curve by getting a copy of your credit record and making sure there isn't any incorrect information on it. New Jersey residents are allowed one free credit report each year.

Write or call to the primary credit agencies listed below. Be sure to provide your full name, current address, Social Security number, and most recent former address for file-matching purposes.

E. Voting Rights

New Jersey law does not allow you to vote while you are in prison, or while you are on probation or parole for an indictable offense. (Disorderly person offenses don't disqualify you.) Any person who is no longer in prison, or has completed his or her term of probation or parole can register to vote. That is the law. Make sure that you are registered in the county in which you reside.

Applications for registration can be obtained from the Division of Elections, the Commissioners of Registration office in the County where you live or from your Municipal Clerk. Registration forms are also available in various state agencies and at Motor Vehicle Commission offices and can be obtained while transacting agency business. If you are not sure, you can visit http://www.state.nj.us/lps/elections/vote_doe.html or www.njelections.org.

You will be able to download a Voter's Registration form and mail it in. This site also explains who can register to vote and where you can register.

F. Registration of Sexual Offenders (Megan's Law)

Sex offenders are required to register with the police under Megan's Law. Offenses include: aggravated sexual assault; sexual assault; aggravated criminal sexual contact; endangering the welfare of a child by engaging in sexual conduct which would impair or debauch the morals of the child; luring or enticing and, if the victim were a minor and the offender not a parent, kidnapping; criminal restraint and false imprisonment and promoting prostitution of a child under 18. You will be registered prior to release, but must re-register your home address at least 10 days prior to any move with the law enforcement agency with which you were registered when released. You will also need to verify your address annually or every 90 days if you are a repetitive and compulsive offender.

The Game Plan

Your first weeks out after leaving prison can be overwhelming. This section is set up to help you get organized and keep yourself on track toward your goals. First, think about what those goals are. What do you want or need to get done in your first week out? In your first month out? Where do you want to be in six months? There are lots of things that other people need you to do – your parole officer, for example, and your family – but you also need to think about what you expect from yourself.
