

2-1-1 is an easy to remember number that connects people with social services, community-based health services, disaster information and volunteer opportunities.

2-1-1 brings together existing information, referral providers and crisis services into one coordinated system.

2-1-1 makes it easy for anyone to access that system—24 hours a day 7 days a week.

2-1-1 supplies callers with information and referrals to human services for every day needs and in times of crisis.

Get Help.
Give Help.

Every hour of every day, someone in West Virginia needs essential services—from finding substance abuse assistance to securing adequate care for a child or an aging parent. Faced with a dramatic increase in the number of agencies and help lines, people often don't know where to turn. In many cases, people often don't know where to start.

While services that are offered through 2-1-1 vary from community to community, 2-1-1 provides callers with information and referrals to human services for every day needs and in times of crisis.
