my education, my freedom:

A Toolkit for Formerly Incarcerated and System-Impacted Students Pursuing Education in California

ROOT & REBOUND
REENTRY ADVOCATES

Root & Rebound © 2018

table of contents

ABOUT THE AUTHORS 2
EXECUTIVE SUMMARY 4

INTRODUCTION 6
"Why Go Back to School?" by Alejandra Landin 6
Why the Education Toolkit was Created 7

GETTING READY TO RETURN TO SCHOOL 10
STEP 1: Assess yourself by thinking about your background, skills, and talents 11
STEP 2: Determine which careers match your strengths and goals 11
STEP 3: Research the qualifications, education, licenses, and/or certificates your desired field requires 12
STEP 4: Research any job barriers you might face because of your arrest or conviction history. 12
STEP 5: Set yourself up for stability and success by planning for practical needs 15
STEP 6: Get assessed to determine your educational and learning needs 16
STEP 7: Collect identification documents and other records required for attending school 18

EDUCATIONAL OPTIONS & PATHWAYS 28
Adult Basic Education (ABE) & English as a Second Language (ESL) 29
High School Diploma or High School Equivalency Certificate 30
Career And Technical Education 34
“How I Did It” by Danny Murillo 36
Going to College 38
Graduate and Professional School 46

PAYING FOR COLLEGE & FINDING STABILITY IN SCHOOL 49
Financial Aid to Pay for School 50
Paying for Other Basic Needs: Housing, Transportation, Childcare, Textbooks, Etc. 55
Dealing with Legal Issues that Come Up 57

ENTERING THE WORKFORCE: Know Your Rights as You Apply to Jobs! 61
CONCLUSION 63

APPENDICES 64
Appendix A: Where to Go for Support 65
Appendix B: Resources for Choosing a Career Path 67
Appendix C: CHART: A Summary of Record-Cleaning Options in California 68
Appendix D: Navigating Occupational Licensing Barriers 70
Appendix E: Legal Aid Referrals Across California 71

OTHER HELPFUL RESOURCES 74